Ex-Kingston Man, Woman Shot To Death

New Orleans Cops Probe Killings

New Orleans Police continued their investigation today in an effort to determine who fired the shots that killed a Kingston native and a woman companion.

Thomas E. Freshour, 36, and Miss Shirley Finch, 25, both formerly of Lancaster, Pa., were found Friday in an apartment in New Orleans. Paraffin tests proved inconclusive, officers said.

The bodies were found Friday in an apartment the couple shared here. Freshour worked as a maintenance man at Tulane University.

Police said Miss Finch had been shot twice in the left side and chest, and Freshour, who left a wife and four children in Lancaster, died of a bullet wound in the temple.

Officers said the deaths were apparently murder and suicide.

Police laboratory technicians said paraffin tests showed more nitrates on the left hand of Miss Finch than on Freshour's hands. But they said this finding does not necessarily mean that the woman fired the shots.

Sam Moran, investigator for the Orleans Parish (County) coroner's office expressed belief that Freshour fired the shots and that the .45 caliber automatic tumbled from his hands into Miss Finch's lap where it was found by police. Moran said Freshour's trousers indicated he fired the shots while kneeling on the floor.

Her body was found slumped in a chair. Freshour's body was sprawled on the floor at her feet. The coroner's office said the deaths were still under investigation.

Neighbors reported hearing a violent argument and then what they thought were shots the day before the bodies were found.

Moran said the possibility that a third person was involved had definitely been ruled out.

Before coming here Freshour was employed as manager of the container division of the Jones-Laughlin Steel Corp., in Lancaster. Miss Finch once worked for the same company as a secretary.

In Lancaster, Mrs. Alice Warnock Freshour said the dead man was her husband and that he left her and their four children two years ago. She said she received $150 a month for support of herself and the children.

Freshour was born Feb. 11, 1922, in Kingston, the son of Edgar W. and Glyde Elston Freshour, Kingston, who survive. He married Alice Warnock, July 5, 1947, and the couple had four children, a son, Tommie, and three daughters, Ellen, Jane and Alice. They all survive.

Other survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Nancy Benzing, Pasadena, Texas, and Mrs. Martha Gerhardt, Chillicothe.

Funeral services will be at 3 p. m. Wednesday in the Hill Funeral Home, Kingston, with the Rev. Harold Cowdick officiating. Burial will be held in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Hill Funeral Home after noon Tuesday.

Freshour was a 1940 graduate of Kingston High School. He was a member of Masonic Lodge 624 and a veteran of World War II. Freshour was working as a maintenance man at Tulane University, New Orleans.

Texas Pianist Wins Laurels In Soviet Test

MOSCOW (AP)—Van Cliburn, a 6-foot-4 Texan whose piano playing excited the Soviets even more than their own products, today was named the winner of a grueling international music contest that drew contestants from all over the world.

The 23-year-old pianist from Kilgore, Tex., was one of two Americans who reached the finals of the Tchaikovsky International piano competition. Daniel Pollack of Los Angeles was rated last among nine finalists.

Even before Cliburn played in the finals Friday night, music-loving Muscovites had heard of his keyboard skill. They jammed the hall for his appearance and called him back for an encore despite contest rules against it.

Soviet pianist Emil Gilels, the chairman of the judges' panel, formally announced the results today and kissed the lanky, curly headed blond Texas winner on both cheeks. Other contestants and fans jamming the small hall in the Moscow conservatory applauded wildly and chanted Cliburn's name, and he blew a kiss back in thanks.

Cliburn won $6,250 as first prize plus a short concert tour in the Soviet Union.

Communist China's Liu Shi Kin and the Soviet Union's Lev Vlasienko tied for second place. The other finalists included one each from Bulgaria, France, Japan and two more from the Soviet Union.

2 Granddads Complete 2,000-Mile Cruise

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Two grandfathers who said they wanted to get away from everyday life and relax were here today after a 2,000-mile sailboat cruise from Bay City, Mich.

Dr. Max McKay, 69, an optometrist, and Fred Newman, 73, an insurance agent, started the trip in October aboard the Escape, a 40-foot auxiliary sailboat. They came to Florida by way of the Ohio and Mississippi rivers, some canals and the Gulf.

Last Red Test Said 'Dirtiest'

Danish Paper Hints Of 'Catastrophe'

WASHINGTON (AP)—The recent Soviet nuclear tests were "the dirtiest radioactive debris tests the world has ever known."

That's the view of Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.), who said Sunday there probably is a great deal of evidence to back a Danish report that a catastrophic accident caused a halt in Soviet tests.

The report said the mishap caused radioactive fallout to increase to the danger point over Russia and neighboring states.

Denmark's biggest newspaper, Berlingske Tidende, said in Copenhagen the accident was probably the real reason for the Soviet unilateral decision to stop testing nuclear weapons, saying the Soviets could not risk continuing tests of arms with serious defects.

The paper did not specify the nature of the reported accident, but said it was caused by an erroneous estimate of meteorological factors.

THE NEWSPAPER quoted information it said came through diplomatic channels from Moscow. Humphrey, chairman of a Senate Disarmament subcommittee, declared that heavy fallout from the Soviet tests fell on parts of the United States as well as on Scandinavia, northern Europe and Japan.

The Danish report came a day after Humphrey said the Soviets had touched off an underground blast March 25, and that this explosion was detected by seismic stations up to 5,650 miles away.

Although Humphrey did not say so, the implication was that the test involved a nuclear device. He said data from seismic stations indicated the blast was in the northern Ural.

The March 25 date mentioned by Humphrey was three days after the most recent AEC announcement of a Soviet nuclear test. However, AEC has said it does not announce all test blasts it detects.

Kyger Creek Pact Offered Striking Union

GALLIPOLIS (AP)—An agreement which would end a seven-week strike at the huge Kyger Creek power plant will be presented today to members of a Utility Workers Union local for ratification.

If the local ratifies the agreement reached Saturday by representatives of the union and operators of the plant, the 189 striking employees presumably would return to work this week.

Federal Mediators George H. Bell and Edward W. Phillips, who announced the agreement, withheld details until they are presented to the local.

The strike began Feb. 23. A main issue in the dispute was the union's reported insistence on a 6 per cent wage increase and the company's refusal to grant it.

A 6 per cent hike would result in an average hourly base rate of $2.12, compared to the present average of $2 hourly.

The plant, at nearby Cheshire, is operated by the Ohio Valley Electric Corp. and supplies power to the Atomic Energy Commission's Pike County uranium diffusion plant. Supervisory personnel have been operating the plant during the strike.

Wellcome Mat Is Rather Damp

There's Worry in Grass Roots

Congressmen Find People at Home Fearful of Unemployment, Recession

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress checked in for work today with word from the grass roots that people are worried — mainly about unemployment and the recession.

Many members returned with the belief a tax cut of some kind is needed, but only a few listed tax reduction as a major issue back home.

Nearly a third of the Senate and House members (172 of 531) responded to a nationwide Associated Press survey of what they found out back home during the Easter recess. Replies came from 142 House members, 30 senators; from 100 Democrats, 72 Republicans.

Four questions were put to each member:

1. What three problems seem to be troubling constituents most? The recession, unemployment and the farm question stood out.

2. Will he be inclined to favor a tax cut bill now? Among those taking a stand, the ratio was about 2-1 for a reduction, but with widespread disagreement on the type. Only 27 members mentioned taxes as an issue back home, with seven listing it first. The variety of tax-cutting ideas added to the difficulty of agreement on a bill that can be passed.

3. Do people want more, or less, federal spending? This was close, with the edge slightly for more.

4. Are the grass roots for or against foreign trade expansion, or is there indifference to the issue? There was plenty of indifference. But by a margin of about 2½ to 1 members reported that sentiment among interested voters leaned toward increased trade.

On the issues troubling constituents, the legislators put the recession and economic conditions in first place.

Others included the farm question in its multiple phases; the international situation, including peace, foreign policy and testing of nuclear weapons; high prices and living costs; inflation; foreign aid, national security, including unification of the armed forces; the social security program and reciprocal trade with other nations.

The farm problem was mentioned most in the Midwest and South. The halting of nuclear weapons tests was a matter of concern chiefly in the Far West.

Differences were widespread on the issue of a tax cut. A few legislators want no cut at all; a few more want any kind of cut.

Like President Eisenhower, some want to wait and see how business gets along before taking action.

Xenia Mother Is Accused

3 Children Killed In Hammer-Slayings

XENIA (AP)—A Xenia mother, described as "a lovable, church-going woman," will be charged today with the first-degree murder of her three children.

Patrolman Jack Thomas said he will issue three warrants charging that Mrs. Kathleen King, 36, used a hammer to crush the skulls of her daughter, Charlene, 5, and her sons, Donald, 3, and Brian, 2.

The children's father, Charles, 34, found the bodies early Sunday in the family's modest five-room home. Greene County Coroner Dr. H. C. Schick said the children were killed 14 to 18 hours before King found the bodies.

Mrs. King, who police said tried to commit suicide, is in a hospital here in fair condition.

Police have been unable to question her. She is unable to talk, apparently because her throat and mouth were burned by an oven-cleaning fluid she swallowed.

DR. SCHICK said she also attempted to cut her wrists, upper arms and throat. He termed the wounds superficial.

A neighbor, Mrs. Betty Marshall, who characterized Mrs. King as a lovable woman, also said she was a "doting mother, but a worry-wart."

Dr. Schick said Mrs. King had a history of emotional instability and had been given shock treatment at a private institution about a year ago.

Her husband, a 34-year-old postal employee told police he had left for work about 6:15 a. m. Saturday even though his wife asked him to remain at home for the day and had told him that "I'll kill the children and myself if you leave."

He said he returned to the house shortly after midnight Saturday and made the ghastly discovery. Mrs. King was lying on a bed in a bedroom, a blood-stained hammer on the floor beside her. Donald's body was in the kitchen and those of the other two children in another bedroom.

Red 'Thoughts' Control Iron Arm

LONDON (AP)—Moscow Radio has claimed that Soviet scientists have made an artificial arm which is controlled by thoughts. Most artificial limbs are controlled by moving muscles.

"To perform any operation, it is enough to think the relevant movements, and the iron arm will carry them out," the broadcast said. It explained the limb "is based on the use of bio-currents which arise in human muscles in response to commands proceeding from the brain" through the preserved parts of severed muscles. It is to be shown at the Brussels World Fair this month.

TRUMAN TO SPARK HEARING — Former President Harry S. Truman (left) and his former special advisor Charles Murphy prepare the testimony Truman will give before the House Banking and Currency Committee early this week. Republican spokesmen branded Truman as the advance pitchman sent on ahead to set the stage for the flow of anti-administration propaganda to follow in the weeks ahead.

U.S. Moons Now All Alone In Orbits Around World

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Four made-in-America artificial moons are still in orbit today. No Soviet satellites remain in outer space.

Sputnik II apparently broke apart Sunday and fell to earth. Sections of Russia's second artificial moon may have plunged into the jungles of Brazil.

Sputnik II was more than 40 feet long and was estimated by American scientists to weigh possibly several tons. At the time of the launching, the Soviets said it weighed half a ton but the Smithsonian Observatory staff said this reference was to the weight of the dog and instruments.

The high points of the orbit was estimated: a 1,056 miles.

One of the four American satellites in orbit, Vanguard, launched by the Navy March 17, is expected to stay aloft for possibly 100 years.

IT'S ABOUT as big as a grapefruit. Its height of 2,466 miles makes it the highest man-made moon yet launched.

Explorer III, another American satellite, is expected to have a life of only a few months because its orbit is so elliptic that it sweeps to within 116 miles of the earth from a high point of 1,563 miles.

The other two American "moons" are Explorer I and the final stage rocket of Vanguard.

A single sighting from Denver, Colo., indicated the heavy rocket motor of Sputnik II may have completed one more orbit than the lighter fuel tanks and instrument section.

The dog rocket was seen glowing like a hot poker from air

Industrialist Dies

DETROIT, Mich. (AP)—John S. Coleman, president of the Burroughs Corp., and 1956-57 president of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, died of a heart ailment here Sunday. He was 60.

friction over New England at 8:47 p. m., the Smithsonian said. Eight minutes later it was reported in flames over the West Indies. If it continued a minute more, it would have been lost in Brazilian jungles.

Moonwatch teams in Milford, Conn., Millbrook, N. Y., and Bryn Athyn, Pa., reported sighting the satellite Sunday night. The Millbrook and Bryn Athyn teams said it appeared to be glowing with a luminous tail of sparks.

The Smithsonian said the satellite would normally have been invisible in the shadow of the earth on its passage over the Northeast.

THE SOLE report that indicated the heavy motor of the rocket may have continued onward another lap was from Kenneth Steinmetz of the Denver Moonwatch team. Observing with his family, he reported sighting an object as bright as the North Star at 10:12 p. m. Steinmetz said the object was glowing orange-red and was observed for half a minute as it orbited towards the southeast.

Numerous observers in the West Indies said they saw a flaming object overhead about 8:55 p. m.

If the Soviet moon finally fell out of its orbit Sunday night it completed 2,366 trips around the world adding up to nearly 70 million miles since Nov. 3.

Auto Collision Is Too Realistic

COVENTRY, R. I. (AP)—The Coventry Civil Defense Council put on a mock head-on auto crash.

Eight persons played their parts as the injured so realistically that several motorists, including a member of the Providence rescue squad, stopped to offer help.

Truman Urges Cut in Taxes Of $5 Billion

Lower, Middle Income Groups Would Benefit By Ex-Chief's Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—Harry S. Truman today proposed a $5 billion tax cut for low and middle income taxpayers to fight the economic recession. He also urged a big increase in government spending.

The former President who described himself as a "retired Missouri farmer" delivered a wide-ranging discourse on the current economic situation to the House Banking Committee.

He larded his views with peppery jabs at the Eisenhower administration. The country, Truman opined, would not be in the shape it is if the administration had taken quicker action.

He said he saw no need for periodic economic downturns and that both plans and policies of the government should be directed toward constantly expanding the economy.

"We might not be altogether successful in preventing economic downturns," Truman said, "but at least we can make that our goal and not try to brush recessions aside by pretending that they are a good thing."

IN ADDITION to a tax cut and higher spending, Truman urged immediate expansion of the unemployment compensation system and increased social security benefits.

He also backed a community public works bill providing $2 billion in loans to states and local communities, and an area redevelopment program to help create new jobs in areas of chronic unemployment.

Finally, Truman urged relief to small business through making available additional equity capital for small firms.

Truman said he thought the present recession is very serious. (Continued on Page Two)

Doctors Hold Cincy Meetings

CINCINNATI (AP)—Physicians from all parts of Ohio crowded into Cincinnati today for state meetings of the Ohio Heart Assn. and the Ohio Cancer Conference.

About 1,200 are expected for the cancer sessions at which experts will tell of new techniques in detection and treatment.

Also at the cancer sessions, the American Cancer Society will present its gold medal for contributions to the control of cancer to Dr. John H. Lazzari of Cleveland, president of the Ohio State Surgical Assn.

The heart meeting includes technical sessions on arteriosclerosis for the doctors and a panel session on community health for laymen.

Dulles Hints West Big 3 OKs Parley

Powwow in Moscow Expected To Get Start This Week

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles said today that preparatory talks aiming at a summit meeting "may get started within a few days."

Dulles discloses this in briefing about 200 editors and writers of the International Press Institute.

He said "extensive preparatory work" is urgently needed to establish a solid basis for any meeting by heads of government.

Dulles added that it is "quite illusory" to believe that world leaders could sit down and make meaningful decisions without prior detailed examination of problems by lower-ranking aides.

Dulles' remarks hinted strongly that the Atlantic Alliance agreed today to start talks with the Soviet Union in Moscow this week on a summit conference.

The West, however, will almost certainly insist that these discussions leading to a summit conference be broadened more than Moscow proposed.

IN PARIS, reliable informants said the Atlantic Alliance agreed today to start talks with the Soviet Union in Moscow this week on a summit conference.

Approval was given at a session of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Council, composed of permanent representatives of the NATO powers, the informants said.

Delegates from the United States, Britain and France submitted their governments' proposed reply to the latest note from Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

The Soviet position, as Khrushchev stated it, was that the envoys should only set the time and place for a meeting of the foreign ministers, without going into matters of substance.

The Western view is that the envoys should only set the time and place for a meeting of the foreign ministers, without going into matters of substance. (Continued on Page Two)

Indonesian Fleet Poised In Rebel Port

BUKITTINGGI, Sumatra (AP)—A government invasion fleet lay off the rebel port of Padang today as landing forces poised for a knock-out blow against insurgent headquarters in Central Sumatra.

Braced for the attack expected within hours, the revolutionary command placed its troops on a round-the-clock alert and called on them to prevent a landing at all costs.

The alert went out as the Vanguard of the Jakarta fleet (a destroyer and four covettes) loomed three miles off Padang.

A rebel spokesman said he expected the fleet to lay down a barrage to soften up key shore points for the landing troops, believed to number more than 7,000.

Officials here believed Jakarta soldiers and Marines would attack West Sumatra within 24 hours from two sides under cover of air and naval bombardment.

The main thrust is expected around Padang where the rebel government originated two months ago.

In an appeal to the rebels to stand fast, their commander, Lt. Col. Achmad Hussein, said in a broadcast: "Make sure President Sukarno's forces do not land. Destroy them wherever you find them, as we are fighting now for the unity of our nation."

"We are now fighting against a dictator and to save our people and religion. Our sacrifices will not be unavailing."

Mr. Sam Runs Again

SHERMAN, Tex. (AP)—House Speaker Sam Rayburn has given formal notice he'll run for a 24th term in Congress. He has filed for a place on the ballot in the party's July primary.

Spring Pickup Noted in Some Key Industries

Gloomy Recession Statistics Brightened By Isolated Ripples

By WALTER BREED JR.
NEW YORK (AP)—Amidst the welter of gloomy statistics on production and employment this week came welcome signs of a spring pickup in a few key lines. Some examples:

A ripple of activity in home building was presaged by a Washington report showing a sharp increase in the number of applications for FHA mortgage loans.

Edwin H. Mosler Jr., President of Mosler Safe Co., announced a five per cent rise in sales of safes and bank vaults. Said Mosler: "A great many signs exist that the recession may be slowing down and indeed it may be just about over."

The Du Pont Co. said nylon sales for March showed a 10 per cent increase over February and are still moving up. The reason: textile mills and other nylon users have stopped living off their inventories.

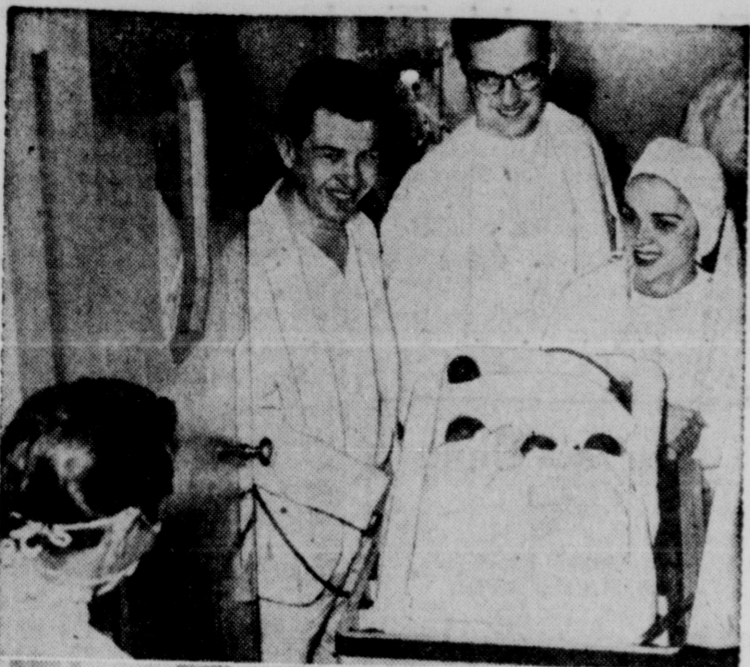

Purchasing Magazine said 66 per cent of the purchasing agents responding to a recent poll reported inventories of their companies in line with production schedules. This indicates, the magazine said, that "the inventory recession is at an end."

Dodge Division of Chrysler Corp. said it is selling three times as many cars equipped with air conditioning as it did at this time last year. International Swimming Pool Corp. reported sales of backyard pools up 150 per cent from 1957. Rambler Division of American Motors Corp. announced plans for a 10 per cent increase in production next week.

Latest statistics out of Washington hinted that the general business downturn—at some points, at least—might be running out of steam.

Although personal income and retail trade declined in March, the dip was much smaller than in previous months. Higher income of farmers and small businessmen helped offset a decline in salaries and wages.

Less favorable was a rise of 25,000 in the number of the nation's jobless—at a time when unemployment should be going down.

Grandest of Grand Opera Offered Ohioans Next Week

CLEVELAND (AP)—From a one dollar seat in the balcony or a $10 seat at the footlights, Ohioans will be treated to the grandest of grand opera next week.

From April 21 to April 27 the Metropolitan Opera will present eight sparkling performances during the Northern Ohio opera Assn's festival at Public Hall.

The brief Cleveland opera season will be highlighted by three new productions:

"Eugene Onegin," the opening night opera, will be sung in English. The same opera with the same cast provided the premier in the Metropolitan's New York season. Tuesday night's newly styled presentation of "Madame Butterfly" has never been presented here.

A new production of Don Giovanni will be presented Saturday night.

Balcony seats are priced from $1 to $8. Some 838 seats will be available at $1, a price re-established this year.

Main floor seats in the dress circle (which does not require formal dress) are $10. Seats on the parquet—a ramp which rises from the main floor to balcony level—are priced at $4 to $10.

Advance sale of tickets has been brisk. Mail order and ticket agent sales out of town account for 40 per cent of the year's advance sale, said Vernon Stouffer, president of the opera association.

However, Stouffer added, advance sales have been distributed equally among the eight performances and seats are still available for all opera at all prices. The association has 29 out-of-town ticket agents.

The change to daylight time in Cleveland Sunday, April 27, may cause some difficulty for opera goers living in communities which remain on eastern standard time. Sunday's matinee will be at 1:30 p.m., daylight time—or 12:30 p.m. EST.

All performances, except the

Gloomy Recession Statistics Brightened By Isolated Ripples

By WALTER BREED JR.
NEW YORK (AP) — Amidst the welter of gloomy statistics on production and employment this week came welcome signs of a spring pickup in a few key lines. Some examples:

A ripple of activity in home building was presaged by a Washington report showing a sharp increase in the number of applications for FHA mortgage loans.

Edwin H. Mosler Jr., President of Mosler Safe Co., announced a five per cent rise in sales of safes and bank vaults. Said Mosler: "A great many signs exist that the recession may be slowing down and indeed it may be just about over."

The Du Pont Co. said nylon sales for March showed a 10 per cent increase over February and are still moving up. The reason: textile mills and other nylon users have stopped living off their inventories.

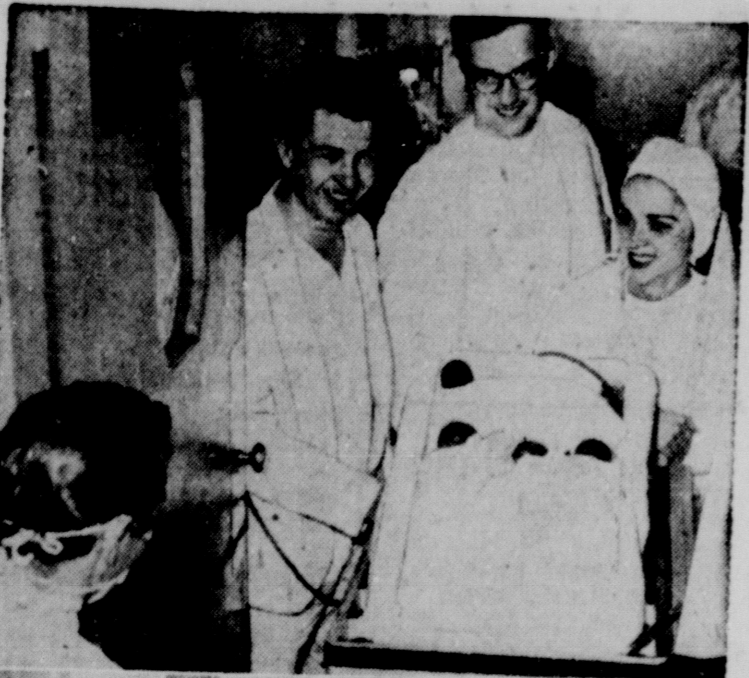

Purchasing Magazine said 66 per cent of the purchasing agents responding to a recent poll reported inventories of their companies in line with production schedules. This indicates, the magazine said, that "the inventory recession is at an end."

Dodge Division of Chrysler Corp. said it is selling three times as many cars equipped with air conditioning as it did at this time last year. International Swimming Pool Corp. reported sales of backyard pools up 150 per cent from 1937. Rambler Division of American Motors Corp. announced plans for a 10 per cent increase in production next week.

Latest statistics out of Washington hinted that the general business downturn—at some points, at least—might be running out of steam.

Although personal income and retail trade declined in March, the dip was much smaller than in previous months. Higher income of farmers and small businessmen helped offset a decline in salaries and wages.

Less favorable was a rise of 25,000 in the number of the nation's jobless—at a time when unemployment should be going down.

Grandest of Grand Opera Offered Ohioans Next Week

CLEVELAND (AP)—From a one dollar seat in the balcony or a $10 seat at the footlights, Ohioans will be treated to the grandest of grand opera next week.

From April 21 to April 27 the Metropolitan Opera will present eight sparkling performances during the Northern Ohio opera Assn's festival at Public Hall.

The brief Cleveland opera season will be highlighted by three new productions:

"Eugene Onegin," the opening night opera, will be sung in English. The same opera with the same cast provided the premier in the Metropolitan's New York season. Tuesday night's newly styled presentation of "Madame Butterfly" has never been presented here.

A new production of Don Giovanni will be presented Saturday night.

Balcony seats are priced from $1 to $8. Some 838 seats will be available at $1, a price re-established this year.

Main floor seats in the dress circle (which does not require formal dress) are $10. Seats on the parquet—a ramp which rises from the main floor to balcony level—are priced at $4 to $10.

Advance sale of tickets has been brisk. Mail order and ticket agent sales out of town account for 40 per cent of the year's advance sale, said Vernon Stouffer, president of the opera association.

However, Stouffer added, advance sales have been distributed equally among the eight performances and seats are still available for all opera at all prices. The association has 29 out-of-town tickets agents.

The change to daylight time in Cleveland Sunday, April 27, may cause some difficulty for opera goers living in communities which remain on eastern standard time. Sunday's matinee will be at 1:30 p.m., daylight time—or 12:30 p.m. EST.

Need Help To Cure Cancer

In a world that at times seems surcharged with gloom, the pervading group of optimism at the National Cancer Institute Congress was heartening. Attending the congress were 35 persons who have been cured of the disease whose very name formerly aroused such honor that relatives and physicians joined in benevolent conspiracy to keep a victim from learning of his certain doom.

The presence of these 35 symbolized the fact that today one person of three who have cancer can be saved. More than 800,000 former cancer patients in America are alive and active today, though they would almost certainly have died if the therapy of 1900 had not been improved on.

This represents progress, but the optimism dominant at the convention was based mainly on sound hopes for the future. The consensus was that a major breakthrough in knowledge of the cause and cure of cancer is not far off.

What sort of breakthrough may come in the next few years? One possibility is discovery of the causative agent—perhaps a virus—in cancer. If a virus can be proved to cause cancer, it may be possible to develop a vaccine that will be effective.

Another possibility is the development of new and powerful drugs which will control the disease even if they cannot cure it. The congress was told of the promising results already obtained by one such drug—which will require further testing, however, before a final verdict on its merits can be reached.

Still another field to be explored involves the endocrine glands and the possible relation to cancer of hormonal imbalance. Even if a particular virus is involved in cancer, there may be differences in body chemistry to explain why some individuals are affected by it and others are not.

Physicians at the congress signed a resolution pledging "to bring to the frightened the message of hope that early cancer may be cured." The 1958 cancer crusade, aiming to raise $30 million in the nation to continue the fight against the disease, will make even more hopeful messages possible in the future.

Spring Fever Grips Big City

NEW YORK (AP) — There are many days in Manhattan when a man feels his soul has the altitude of an African pygmy.

But the payoff days come in spring. Then everyone shrugs off his coat of winter morbidity, and the tallest skyscraper is only knee-high to his soaring mind.

On such a day, when spring fever grips the big city, it turns into a small town.

The rush slows to a walk. Folks quit shoving each other on the subway.

The harried bus driver calms his temper and crieth "Welcome!" to the passenger.

The angry cabbie ceases to unbraid the foolhardy pedestrian, and runneth over him not.

The old cop on the beat reaches up and fingers an opening leaf on a grimy tree, and wonders how it will be when he retires to Florida.

The young window washer, once a paratrooper in Korea, leans out lazily against his belt — 44 floors over the ant-men below—and yawns at the clouds.

The sadness dies out of the voice of the guitar-playing blind beggar on Broadway. He sings a new tune, and passersby clink silver music into the cup that is his portable cash register.

Down on the East Side, matresses bloom on the fire escapes in their first spring airing. Lines of fresh laundry dance from one tenement wall to another.

Up in Central Park bums drowse on the benches under the statues of heroes. The statues look as if they would like to sit down and take it easy, too.

The wonder of living creeps into the heart of the office peasant. He yawneeth at his desk, he dawdleth long at the water cooler, he wisheth it were champagne.

Distance lends enchantment, and everyone wishes the boss would become more enchanted by going home early. Duty no longer calls; it barely whispers.

Everyone wants to go out in the open air to find an apple tree in bloom to lie under and remember when he was young, and his love was too.

Just mass spring fever, turning people back into people again by the magic of April. It will pass. And that's the pity of it.

By Hal Boyle

Foreign Car Question

The American automobile industry has generally taken the position that it required no tariff because it had no competition from foreign cars. It so completely dominated the American market, which is the world's prime market for automobiles, that it required little more than advertising to be successful. Nevertheless there have been over 100 automobile manufacturing companies in the United States, of which only four or five remain.

I look at a list of the officers of the Association of Licensed Automobile Manufacturers in 1911 and they represent the Pierce - Arrow, the Locomobile, the Pope—not one of which remains in the business today. The Packard, which was a fancy car, sold for as high as $5,750. There were plenty of cheap cars to meet every pocketbook. The cheapest and best - selling car was the Ford.

However, the American car is giving the appearance in 1958 of having outpriced itself even in the American market. A commodity is outpriced not when accountants, statisticians and economists say that it is or it is not, but when the consumer decides to look for something else. All sorts of European cars are being brought into this country, built in Europe by European labor and using European materials, paying European taxes, but some of them employing American capital and, to a degree, American management.

Let us read the facts about the advertisement of "The Unique Opel Car." It says that this is "From German Skills and German Ingenuity." This is "A General Motors car designed and built in Germany" and is "Sold and Serviced in U. S. Only by Authorized Buick Dealers."

There is nothing objectionable or wrong about any of this, except that the automobile industry is one that has been hardest hit by the current depression. Neither Walter Reuther who runs the industry from the labor unions nor American automobile management seems to care anything about the danger of the foreign car invasion which is growing by leaps and bounds.

LAFF-A-DAY

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

FRANK BOYDEN, Deerfield School headmaster, tells about a Southern rookie called up by the Philadelphia Nationals, who reported at the Polo Grounds. The manager said, "Sit next to me on the bench, and I'll point out the fine points of baseball as played in the majors."

In the second inning, the Phils had a fleet runner on first, when the next batter slashed a long single to right field. The Giants had the great Mel Ott patrolling that sector. Noting that the runner was trying to go from first to third, Master Mel threw a bullet smack into the third baseman's mitt, and the runner was out sliding.

The manager told the rookie, "He was right to try that. You won't see a play like that again in years."

In the eighth, the same runner was on first, the same batter singled to right, and the same Ott threw him out at third.

The Southern rookie shook his head and murmured, "Time sure does fly up heah in the North!"

Cancer Far from Beaten

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.
Every day more than 100 American men, women and children are being saved from cancers that would have killed them just ten years ago.

There's a purpose in my calling attention to the great strides we have made in the battle against cancer at this particular time.

The American Cancer Society this month embarked on a nationwide crusade to raise $30,000,000 to speed the day when cancer no longer will be a menace.

Most of you, I know, have contributed to cancer research in the past. And perhaps you would like to know just what you got for your money.

That question is fairly easy to answer: the money you contributed to this great organization paid off in human lives.

While statistics generally are pretty boring, I think you will find these interesting—and heartening. Let's apply those 38,000 additional lives we save each year to other categories of fatalities.

For example, we could translate saving these lives as meaning the virtual elimination of motor vehicle deaths.

If we apply this number to other diseases, it would mean not a single death from polio, typhoid, tuberculosis, diphtheria, dysterentia, sypilis, measles, whooping cough, meningococcal infections and all other infective and parasitic diseases. It would also eliminate diabetes as a cause of death.

Doctors used to be pretty proud of their record—saving one in every four cancer patients. Now we save one in every three! That's a total of 150,000 Americans saved from cancer each year.

Still, cancer kills approximately 250,000 persons every year. Eventually, it strikes two out of every three homes in America. It still is a big problem.

We are making progress, but we have no sure cure, no preventative for cancer as yet. More research, more experimentation, more money is needed.

That's why I urge you to help the American Cancer Society to help you in its crusade to save lives. Who knows, the lives they help save may be yours or your loved ones.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP) — Joseph Stalin looked like a bomb-thrower. Nikita Khrushchev looks like a short-order cook. But that's only one of the differences that make him dangerous to this country.

The three early Communists saints — Lenin, Stalin, Trotsky — had faces tense enough to scare babies. They had fanatic eyes. Khrushchev kisses babies. And you can hardly see the eyes in his fat, round face.

Stalin outlived Lenin and Trotsky but not their fanaticism. He became a symbol of what communism meant to millions: death and cruelty, and a willingness to sacrifice living generations for future generations.

There was something else he didn't outlive either: his own brand of isolationism. This was in part self-imposed and in part forced upon the Soviet Union by the big powers which hemmed her in.

Stalin's combination of isolationism and fanaticism — plus his own inflexibility — had two results:

1. He turned inward and concentrated on building the Soviet Union. In this he was amazingly successful, although at terrible cost in lives. He laid the foundations for the Soviet Union's present enormous power: in science, industry, education and armament, including nuclear weapons.

2. There was nothing persuasive about Stalin. He relied on the only means he knew: naked force. As a result, Soviet Communist expansion was limited.

True, he seized the European satellites in World War II. He had to hold them by force. But when he tried force after the war — in the Berlin blockade, pressure on Greece, Turkey, Iran and war in Korea — he failed.

Instead of attracting his neighbors to Soviet communism, he drove them out of fear to seek the help and protection of the West. A drastic change was needed if communism was to expand.

It's no wonder Khrushchev made the change after Stalin died. Basically there was no change, as Khrushchev demonstrated last week when he warned the satellites the Soviets would crush any anti-Communist revolution.

That should seem sufficient warning to all Soviet neighbors of what to expect if they go Communist. It probably won't. Khrushchev mixes his fast balls with slow curves.

He practices what Stalin refused to learn: if you can't move by force, try persuasion. He's doing it at home and abroad by adopting a policy of reasonableness, neighborliness and togetherness.

If Soviet influence is to spread, more trade and an end to nuclear tests, he cannot help being persuasive to a world which wants peace and better living.

When he calls for summit talks, more trade and an end to nuclear tests, he cannot help being persuasive to a world which wants peace and better living.

The more he eliminates tensions, the more he is bound to weaken to some degree the links this country has with other peoples who have depended on us for help and protection.

No wonder he's working at it. And no wonder he's having some success.

Need Help To Cure Cancer

In a world that at times seems surcharged with gloom, the pervading group of optimism at the National Cancer Institute Congress was heartening. Attending the congress were 35 persons who have been cured of the disease whose very name formerly aroused such honor that relatives and physicians joined in benevolent conspiracy to keep a victim from learning of his certain doom.

The presence of these 35 symbolized the fact that today one person of three who have cancer can be saved. More than 800,000 former cancer patients in America are alive and active today, though they would almost certainly have died if the therapy of 1900 had not been improved on.

This represents progress, but the optimism dominant at the convention was based mainly on sound hopes for the future. The consensus was that a major breakthrough in knowledge of the cause and cure of cancer is not far off.

What sort of breakthrough may come in the next few years? One possibility is discovery of the causative agent—perhaps a virus—in cancer. If a virus can be proved to cause cancer, it may be possible to develop a vaccine that will be effective.

new and powerful drugs which will control the disease even if they cannot cure it. The congress was told of the promising results already obtained by one such drug—which will require further testing, however, before a final verdict on its merits can be reached.

Still another field to be explored involves the endocrine glands and the possible relation to cancer of hormonal imbalance. Even if a particular virus is involved in cancer, there may be differences in body chemistry to explain why some individuals are affected by it and others are not.

Physicians at the congress signed a resolution pledging "to bring to the frightened message of hope that early cancer may be cured." The 1958 cancer crusade, aiming to raise $30 million in the nation to continue the fight against the disease, will make even more hopeful messages possible in the future.

Spring Fever Grips Big City

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—There are many days in Manhattan when a man feels his soul has the attitude of an African pygmy.

But the payoff days come in spring. Then everyone shrugs off his coat of winter morbidity, and the tallest skyscraper is only knee-high to his soaring mind.

On such a day, when spring fever grips the big city, it turns into a small town.

The rush slows to a walk. Folks just shoving each other on the subway.

The harried bus driver calms his temper and crieth "Welcome!" to the passenger.

The angry cabbie ceases to unbraid the foolhardy pedestrian, and runneth over him not.

The old cop on the beat

reaches up and fingers an opening leaf on a grimy tree, and wonders how it will be when he retires to Florida.

The young window washer, once a paratrooper in Korea, leans out lazily against his belt—44 floors over the ant-men below—and yawns at the clouds.

The sadness dies out of the voice of the guitar-playing band beggar on Broadway. He sings a new tune, and passersby clink silver music into the cup that is his portable cash register.

Down on the East Side, matresses bloom on the fire escapes in their first spring airing. Lines of fresh laundry dance from one tenement wall to another.

Up in Central Park bums drowse on the benches under the

statues of heroes. The statues look as if they would like to sit down and take it easy, too.

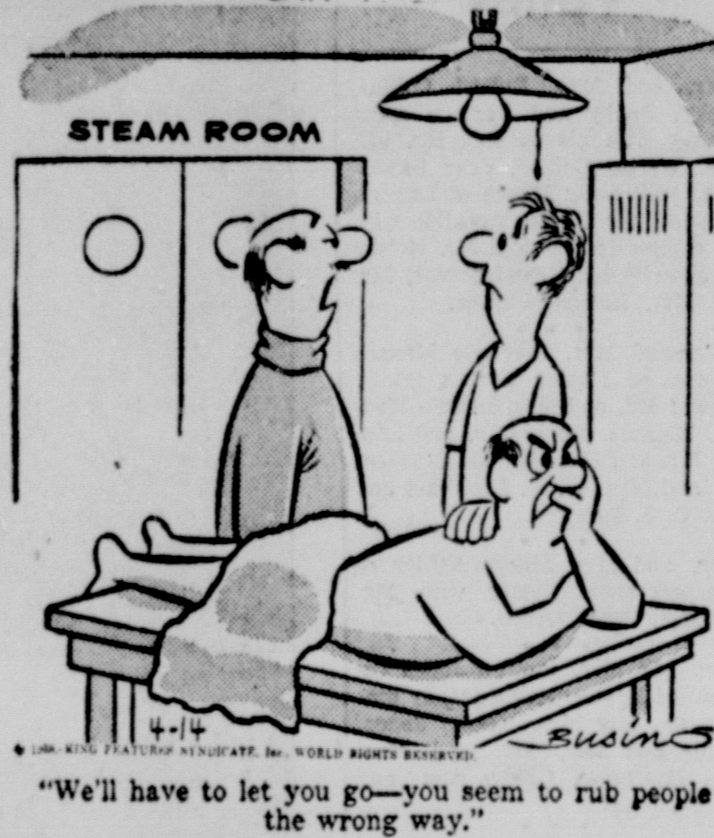

The wonder of living creeps into the heart of the office peasant. He yawneth at his desk, he dawdleth long at the water cooler, he wisheth it were champagne.

Distance lends enchantment, and everyone wishes the boss would become more enchanted by going home early. Duty no longer calls; it barely whispers.

Just mass spring fever, turning people back into people again by the magic of April. It will pass. And that's the pity of it.

LAFF-A-DAY

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

FRANK BOYDEN, Deerfield School headmaster, tells about a Southern rookie called up by the Philadelphia Nationals, who reported at the Polo Grounds. The manager said, "Sit next to me on the bench, and I'll point out the fine points of baseball as played in the majors."

In the second inning, the Phils had a fleet runner on first, when the next batter slashed a long single to right field. The Giants had the great Mel Ott patrolling that sector. Noting that the runner was trying to go from first to third, Master Mel threw a bullet smack into the third baseman's mitt, and the runner was out sliding.

The manager told the rookie, "He was right to try for third. You won't see a play like that again in years."

In the eighth, the same runner was on first, the same batter singled to right, and the same Ott threw him out at third.

The Southern rookie shook his head and murmured, "Time sure does fly up heah in the North!"

Cancer Far from Beaten

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.
Every day more than 100 American men, women and children are being saved from cancers that would have killed them just ten years ago.

There's a purpose in my calling attention to the great strides we have made in the battle against cancer at this particular time.

The American Cancer Society this month embarked on a nationwide crusade to raise $30,000,000 to speed the day when cancer no longer will be a menace.

Most of you, I know, have contributed to cancer research in the past. And perhaps you would like to know just what you got for your money.

That question is fairly easy to answer: the money you contributed to this great organization paid off in human lives.

While statistics generally are pretty boring, I think you will find these interesting—and heartening. Let's apply those 38,000 additional lives we save each year to other categories of fatalities.

For example, we could translate saving these lives as meaning the virtual elimination of motor vehicle deaths.

If we apply this number to other diseases, it would mean not a single death from polio, typhoid, tuberculosis, diphtheria, dysentery.

Ohio Socialists Meet

AKRON (AP)—Voting to conduct a write-in campaign, the Socialist Labor Party nominated Bernard M. Presser, 29, a Cleveland machinist, to run for governor of Ohio at its annual state convention here Sunday.

syphilis, measles, whooping cough, meningococcal infections and all other infective and parasitic diseases. It would also eliminate diabetes as a cause of death.

Doctors used to be pretty proud of their record—saving one in every four cancer patients. Now we save one in every three! That's a total of 130,000 Americans saved from cancer each year.

Still, cancer kills approximately 250,000 persons every year. Eventually, it strikes two out of every three homes in America. It still is a big problem.

We are making progress, but we have no sure cure, no preventative for cancer as yet. More research, more experimentation, more money is needed.

That's why I urge you to help the American Cancer Society to help you in its crusade to save lives. Who knows, the lives they help save may be yours or your loved ones.

Answer: Surgical removal of polyps of the nose is the best treatment. This type of operation is simple and need not cause any great concern.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP)—Joseph Stalin looked like a bomb-thrower. Nikita Khrushchev looks like a short-order cook. But that's only one of the differences that make him dangerous to this country.

The three early Communist saints — Lenin, Stalin, Trotsky — had faces tense enough to scare babies. They had fanatic eyes. Khrushchev kisses babies. And you can hardly see the eyes in his fat, round face.

Stalin outlived Lenin and Trotsky but not their fanaticism. He became a symbol of what communism meant to millions: death and cruelty, and a willingness to sacrifice living generations for future generations.

There was something else he didn't outlive either: his own brand of isolationism. This was in part self-imposed and in part forced upon the Soviet Union by the big powers which hemmed her in.

Stalin's combination of isolationism and fanaticism — plus his own inflexibility — had two results:

1. He turned inward and concentrated on building the Soviet Union. In this he was amazingly successful, although at terrible cost in lives. He laid the foundations for the Soviet Union's present enormous power: in science, industry, education and armament, including nuclear weapons.

2. There was nothing persuasive about Stalin. He relied on the only means he knew: naked force. As a result, Soviet Communist expansion was limited.

True, he seized the European satellites in World War II. He had to hold them by force. But when he tried force after the war — in the Berlin blockade, pressure on Greece, Turkey, Iran and war in Korea — he failed.

Instead of attracting his neighbors to Soviet communism, he drove them out of fear to seek the help and protection of the West. A drastic change was needed if communism was to expand.

It's no wonder Khrushchev made the change after Stalin died. Basically there was no change, as Khrushchev demonstrated last week when he warned the satellites the Soviets would crush any anti-Communist revolution.

That should seem sufficient warning to all Soviet neighbors of what to expect if they go Communist. It probably won't. Khrushchev mixes his fast balls with slow curves.

He practices what Stalin refused to learn: if you can't move by force, try persuasion. He's doing it at home and abroad by adopting a policy of reasonableness, neighborliness and togetherness.

If Soviet influence is to spread, he must put an end to the tensions which Stalin created and which drove the non-Communist world westward.

When he calls for summit talks, more trade and an end to nuclear tests, he cannot help being persuasive to a world which wants peace and better living.

The more he eliminates tensions, the more he is bound to weaken to some degree the links this country has with other peoples who have depended on us for help and protection.

No wonder he's working at it. And no wonder he's having some success.

Dem Governor Candidates Hold King-Size Press Parley

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Democratic candidates for governor had a king-sized press conference Sunday, and they had it all to themselves.

It was the annual spring luncheon of The Associated Press Society of Ohio (APSO).

Although Gov. C. William O'Neill and Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati, the Republican candidates, were invited, neither attended.

Six of the seven Democratic candidates were on hand, however, to address news executives of Associated Press member newspapers from throughout the state. The only Democratic candidate who couldn't make it was Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner of Columbus who had car trouble upstate. An aide represented him.

While not in complete accord, the candidates did agree on several points:

Ohio's first four-year governor should be a Democrat.

The O'Neill administration has been "government by press agent."

A proposed constitutional amendment — called by some a right-to-work proposal—should not become law. It would ban the union shop in Ohio.

And jobless workers should be allowed to collect both state unemployment compensation and supplemental unemployment benefits (SUB) at the same time.

Although candidates expressed some other similar ideas, there were some highly individual approaches to the state's problems in the 10-minute talk of each.

The man who was Democratic gubernatorial candidate in 1956, Michael V. DiSalle of Toledo, spent most of his time discussing the "Relationship of a Free Press with Government."

DiSalle asserted that Gov. O'Neill's 15 months in office have been a period of extensive press agency. Speaking of state government press releases, he said, "one thing you can be sure of in every one of their releases — O'Neill's name will not be left out."

DiSalle, a former Toledo mayor, and Mayors Anthony J. Celebrezze of Cleveland and Sensenbrenner came under fire from Clingan Jackson Youngstown newspaperman who is also a candidate.

In one of the few comments Sunday indicating intra-party friction, he criticized big city mayors for allegedly permitting a deal to reduce the amount of state money available for major highways outside cities.

Celebrezze and Mrs. Vivienne L. Suarez of Columbus disagreed on state income tax. Celebrezze opposed it; Mrs. Suarez suggested it as a replacement for the 3 per cent sales tax.

However, the general mood seemed to be reflected by Albert S. Porter, Cuyahoga County Engineer, who declared: "We are interested in fighting only the Republican candidates, not each other. We have good ground, because the people of Ohio in the last 15 months have suffered under a government of trial and error; mostly error."

A former Ohio Supreme Court Judge, Robert N. Gorman of Cincinnati, called for immediate action by O'Neill.

"The present governor could end all this confusion very simply by (calling) a special session of the Legislature to legalize his illegal appointments and to pass a law legalizing SUB payments."

He apparently referred to the appointments of Dr. Robert Haines as director of the Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction and the intended appointment of State Highway Chief Charles M. Noble.

Atty. Gen. William Saxbe ruled that O'Neill could not properly appoint Haines or Noble after the Legislature adjourned, because the Legislature was in session when the vacancies existed and the Ohio Senate must confirm such appointments.

Substituting for Sensenbrenner, Columbus Finance Director Maurice D. Portman read statements issued by the court calling for improvement and expansion of certain services. He declared again Sensenbrenner's opposition to new state laws and the mayor's appeal for a limit on spending by candidates and campaign committee.

Gov. O'Neill declined the invitation to appear on grounds of previous commitments. Taft, who says he is a stand-by candidate only in case O'Neill's health forces him to withdraw, said he is making no campaign appearances.

Women's Wear Executive Plays Role of Meanest Man

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Bob Evans has taken another leave from the women's wear business, this time to play the meanest man in the West.

Evans is the handsome young executive of the Evans - Picone sportswear firm who was twice discovered for movies. Norma Shearer tabbed him to play her husband, Irving Thalberg, in "Man of a Thousand Faces." Then Darryl Zanuck picked him to play Ava Gardner's bull-fighter-lover in "The Sun Also Rises."

Now he's back to co-star with Hugh O'Brian in "Rope Law," a westernized version of the 1947 crime film, "Kiss of Death." That was the movie in which Richard Widmark made a sensational debut as the sniggling killer, Tommy Udo.

O'Brian plays the Victor Mature role as the reformed hoodlum, and Evans gets the Widmark part. I asked him if he would repeat Udo's nasty bit of pushing an old lady down the stairs in her wheelchair.

"No, I shoot her with a bow and arrow," he replied with some relish. Some fun!

Speaking of crime, Walter Wanger says "The Barbara Graham Story" will not be played for sensations. The real-life story of the glamor girl of the California underworld is being played by Susan Hayward.

"I think it will be the best-documented movie about delinquency," the producer said. "It will show how a girl can get deeper and deeper into wrong until she finds herself faced with the gas chamber."

The preview scene: "Too Much, Too Soon" is an attempt to cash in on the lush "celebrity confessions" market. As such, it will attract some interest. But is no "I'll Cry Tomorrow." Dorothy Malone struggles to bring some sympathy to Diana Barrymore's topsy-turvy life, but it's a losing battle. Erroll Flynn is his charming self as his old pal, John Barrymore....

"The Proud Rebel" tries to recapture the greatness of "Shane," and almost succeeds. We have wandering Alan Ladd, a boy (this time Alan's own talented son, David) and a dog. Also Olivia Dehavilland and some fine photography, adding up to topnotch family entertainment.

New Tax Rule OKs Expenses Of Professionals' Education

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ohio Education Assn. estimates a new federal income tax ruling could mean refunds of about $1,400,000 for Ohio teachers.

Claims for refunds, however, must be filed before the April 15 filing deadline for 1957 taxes, the OEA pointed out.

The new Treasury Department ruling permits teachers and other salaried professional employees to deduct from their taxable income the expenses incurred voluntarily for further education. The ruling is retroactive for four years.

Teachers who desire to claim credit for educational expenses for the tax year of 1954 must revise their income tax returns before midnight Tuesday (April 15).

Nationally, it has been estimated the tax ruling may mean close to $102 million in tax refunds for teachers. Ohio's teaching force represents about seven per cent of all U. S. teachers.

Congressman James G. Polk (D-Ohio) reports the new ruling, officially known as Treasury Dept. Regulation TD 6291, was dated April 5.

He said he was told that "expenditures made by a taxpayer for his education are deductible if they are for education undertaken primarily for the purpose of (1) maintaining or improving skills required in his employment or other trade or business or (2) meeting the express requirement of a taxpayer's employer, or the requirements of applicable law imposed as a condition to the retention by the taxpayer of his salary, status or employment."

Polk said this regulation allows teachers to deduct educational expenses under circumstances which previously were not deductible.

Polk said the new ruling is retroactive to the tax year 1954. He said that if individuals are unable to get proper forms for the deduction, they should write their district internal revenue director before the Tuesday midnight deadline stating they wish to make a claim for refund. This letter

MOSCOW (AP)—A Soviet writer has suggested that too many Russian women are doing men's work, and vice versa.

Writing in the Literary Gazette, Vladimir Nemtsov recommended that the Labor Protection Division of Soviet Trade Unions determine whether labor managers are mis-using female labor.

In many cases, Nemtsov said, women are assigned to such heavy jobs as lugging bricks, railway ties, and rails, while men are working in the kitchens.

Claims for refunds, however, must be filed before the April 15 filing deadline for 1957 taxes, the OEA pointed out.

The new Treasury Department ruling permits teachers and other salaried professional employees to deduct from their taxable income the expenses incurred voluntarily for further education. The ruling is retroactive for four years.

Teachers who desire to claim credit for educational expenses for the tax year of 1954 must revise their income tax returns before midnight Tuesday (April 15).

Nationally, it has been estimated the tax ruling may mean close to $102 million in tax refunds for teachers. Ohio's teaching force represents about seven per cent of all U. S. teachers.

Congressman James G. Polk (D-Ohio) reports the new ruling, officially known as Treasury Dept. Regulation TD 6291, was dated April 5.

He said he was told that "expenditures made by a taxpayer for his education are deductible if they are for education undertaken primarily for the purpose of (1) maintaining or improving skills required in his employment or other trade or business or (2) meeting the express requirement of a taxpayer's employer, or the requirements of applicable law imposed as a condition to the retention by the taxpayer of his salary, status or employment."

Polk said the new ruling is retroactive to the tax year 1954. He said that if individuals are unable to get proper forms for the deduction, they should write their district internal revenue director before the Tuesday midnight deadline stating they wish to make a claim for refund. This letter

Russian Women Doing Too Much Men's Work

MOSCOW (AP)—A Soviet writer has suggested that too many Russian women are doing men's work, and vice versa.

Writing in the Literary Gazette, Vladimir Nemtsov recommended that the Labor Protection Division of Soviet Trade Unions determine whether labor managers are misusing female labor.

In many cases, Nemtsov said, women are assigned to such heavy jobs as lugging bricks, railway ties, and rails, while men are working in the kitchens.

Work on the St. Lawrence Seaway will be completed in 1959, allowing larger size ocean vessels to load in ports in the Middle West.

Women's Wear Executive Plays Role of Meanest Man

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Bob Evans has taken another leave from the women's wear business, this time to play the meanest man in the West.

Evans is the handsome young executive of the Evans-Piccone sportswear firm who was twice discovered for movies. Norma Shearer tabbed him to play her husband, Irving Thalberg, in "Man of a Thousand Faces." Then Darryl Zanuck picked him to play Ava Gardner's bull-fighter-lover in "The Sun Also Rises."

Now he's back to co-star with Hugh O'Brian in "Rope Law," a westernized version of the 1947 crime film, "Kiss of Death." That was the movie in which Richard Widmark made a sensational debut as the sniggling killer, Tommy Udo.

O'Brian plays the Victor Mature role as the reformed hoodlum, and Evans gets the Widmark part. I asked him if he would repeat Udo's nasty bit of pushing an old lady down the stairs in her wheelchair.

"No, I shoot her with a bow and arrow," he replied with some relish. Some fun!

Speaking of crime, Walter Wanger says "The Barbara Graham Story" will not be played for sensations. The real-life story of the glamor girl of the California underworld is being played by Susan Hayward.

finds herself faced with the gas chamber."

The preview scene: "Too Much, Too Soon" is an attempt to cash in on the lush "celebrity confessions" market. As such, it will attract some interest. But is no "I'll Cry Tomorrow." Dorothy Malone struggles to bring some sympathy to Diana Barrymore's tony-turvy life, but it's a losing battle. Erroll Flynn is his charming self as his old pal, John Barrymore. "The Proud Rebel" tries to recapture the greatness of "Shane," and almost succeeds. We have wandering Alan Ladd, a boy (this time Alan's own talented son, David) and a dog. Also Olivia Dehavilland and some fine photography, adding up to topnotch family entertainment.

Glamorous Novelties Making Beauty News

How soigne can things get? The absolute latest to make ladies sit up and take notice is a line of metatarsal, insole, heel and arch cushions in bon-bon colors—lemon sherbet, strawberry ice, aquamarine and seafoam blue.

Pastels are the big shoe shades for spring and the new cushions are designed to match the inside of shoes to the outside. A cute idea!

from the manufacturer of shower curtains. This company has completed its line by bringing out shower and bath soap that's French-milled with lanolin.

One's a rose-pink shade with a lovely geranium fragrance; the other's ivory white with a floral bouquet. The shower soap is round and easy to grasp, while the bath soap is larger and oval, comes packed in a reusable box that could be used to hold cosmetics or jewelry.

In hairdos, one famous salon has introduced the "Mille Feuilles" cut. It's French for a "thousand leaves." The coiffure is cut and rushed into layers of turned-under softness that frame the face prettily. A becoming style, its big selling point is the fact that it makes upkeep easy, will look pretty with a minimum of setting.

Couples Club Enjoys Dinner

Members of the Presbyterian Couples Club enjoyed a progressive dinner last night.

Approximately 40 members and four couples as guests journeyed to the home of the Rev. Donald Mitchell, E. Mound St., for appetizers and then proceeded on to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Whitmore, Atwater Ave., for salad.

The next stop was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Grigg, Atwater Ave., for the main course. The dinner was completed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hull, Lewis Road, where the group enjoyed dessert.

Tackle Beauty Jobs In a Systematic Way

Be systematic about beauty. It's all important.

Once a month, for example, make a date for a haircut and keep that date. Don't be tempted to break it.

A monthly shaping is a "must" if you'd keep your coiffure trim and becoming. Let it go and hair gets wild and woolly. No beauty asset!

Once a week, manicure nails. Let'em go longer than that and you're in for trouble. Seven days is about as long as you can expect polish to last. After that—sometimes even before—it starts chipping. Don't try to mend it by slapping another coat of polish over the old one. It won't work. The result will just be messy.

Plan a fixed bedtime beauty routine—hair brushing, face cleansing and creaming, curl-setting. Don't deviate from it no matter how late the hour or how tired you are.

Beauty chores can't be postponed. They must be done promptly, as required. Put them off and you're jeopardizing your appearance. Beauty is an everyday essential, not something you simulate for special occasions.

When you are making a cake, add the flavoring to the fat and sugar that is to be creamed for best flavor absorption.

Household Hints

Mix a half cup of instant chocolate flavored beverage mix with a quart of milk, cover and refrigerate. Nice to have on hand for small fry after-school snacks.

Seven small eggs give approximately the same weight as six medium-sized eggs; six medium-sized eggs give about the same weight as five large eggs. This is a good rule to remember when you are making sponge or angel food cakes.

A couple of pounds of fresh green peas will need to be cooked in half a cup of water, with half a teaspoon of salt, for seven to fifteen minutes.

You can broil a hard-frozen steak that is cut thin in about the same time that a fresh steak of equal thickness will take.

Cooked frozen vegetables may be as high in nutrients as fresh vegetables. When frozen vegetables are blanched the enzyme that hastens the loss of vitamin C is inactivated.

Glamorous Novelties Making Beauty News

How soigne can things get? The absolute latest to make ladies sit up and take notice is a line of metatarsal, insole, heel and arch cushions in bon-bon colors—lemon sherbet, strawberry ice, aquamarine and seafoam blue.

On the practical side, cushions are foam, can be washed without shrinking, are non-skid, do not discolor, do resist fungus, bacteria, rot, mildew, oils, grease and acids.

from the manufacturer of shower curtains. This company has completed its line by bringing out shower and bath soap that's French-milled with lanolin.

One's a rose-pink shade with a lovely geranium fragrance; the other's ivory white with a floral bouquet. The shower soap is round and easy to grasp, while the bath soap is larger and oval, comes packed in a reusable box that could be used to hold cosmetics or jewelry.

In hairdos, one famous salon has introduced the "Mille Feuilles" cut. It's French for a "thousand leaves." The coiffure is cut and rushed into layers of turned-under softness that frame the face prettily. A becoming style, its big selling point is the fact that it makes upkeep easy, will look pretty with a minimum of setting.

Couples Club Enjoys Dinner

Approximately 40 members and four couples as guests journeyed to the home of the Rev. Donald Mitchell, E. Mound St., for appetizers and then proceeded on to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Whitmore, Atwater Ave., for salad.

The next stop was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Grigg, Atwater Ave., for the main course. The dinner was completed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hull, Lewis Road, where the group enjoyed dessert.

Tackle Beauty Jobs In a Systematic Way

Be systematic about beauty. It's all important.

A monthly shaping is a "must" if you'd keep your coiffure trim and becoming. Let it go and hair gets wild and woolly. No beauty asset!

Once a week, manicure nails. Let'em go longer than that and you're in for trouble. Seven days is about as long as you can expect polish to last. After that—sometimes even before—it starts chipping. Don't try to mend it by slipping another coat of polish over the old one. It won't work. The result will just be messy.

Have a set schedule for taking clothes to the cleaner and laundry. Stick to it and you'll always know there's something clean, neat and pressed, ready to wear, in your closet.

Plan a fixed bedtime beauty routine—hair brushing, face cleaning and creaming, curl-setting. Don't deviate from it no matter how late the hour or how tired you are.

Beauty chores can't be postponed. They must be done promptly, as required. Put them off and you're jeopardizing your appearance. Beauty is an everyday essential, not something you simulate for special occasions.

When you are making a cake, add the flavoring to the fat and sugar that is to be creamed for best flavor absorption.

Rhodes Claims Dems Off Base In O'Neill Rap

Mental Health 'Mess' Said Inherited from Previous Governor

COLUMBUS (AP)—A severe critic of Ohio mental health standards says Democrats are off base in blaming GOP Gov. C. William O'Neill for present conditions.

"Governor O'Neill's administration inherited a mess," avers state Auditor James A. Rhodes, a Republican whose job is not at stake in this year's election. The governor is seeking reelection.

O'Neill and his staff "are doing a forthright job in correcting administrative nonfeasance that covered years of neglect and indifference," Rhodes asserts.

The political assiduous surprised O'Neill, who has avoided criticism of former five-term Gov. Frank J. Lausche, a Democrat, although Republican state headquarters knew Rhodes' blast was in the making.

What apparently touched off Rhodes was a claim by Democrat Michael V. DiSalle, making a second bid to defeat O'Neill, that state mental patients are "shamefully cared for." DiSalle cited a recently published summary of examiners' reports critical of state hospital operations.

Rhodes said the newspaper summary presented the reports, dating back five years, in a way to make them appear current. They included some reports used in Rhodes' unsuccessful 1954 campaign to unseat Lausche as governor.

Rhodes asserts that disbelieving friends of Lausche generally ignored the reports then, but now are trying to fashion them into a necklace of millstones for O'Neill.

"Certain gubernatorial candidates, in criticizing Ohio's mental health program, are unfairly blaming the present administration for a lack of proper care," Rhodes says.

"For the past five years, since our examiners began reporting on the mental hospitals and institutions, attention has been consistently directed to many abuses and a lack of adequate treatment, facilities and personnel."

Despite improvement, "there is much to be done," he adds.

Rhodes recently raised a few eyebrows by cutting Dr. Robert A. Haines, director of mental health and correction, off the state payroll. The auditor said he acted to avoid being sued personally for following an attorney general's ruling that Haines was appointed illegally.

The ruling, requested by Rhodes, said O'Neill could not appoint a mental health director after the 1957 Legislature adjourned because that vacancy was not filled during the session so the Senate could act on confirmation.

Haines took a $500 cut in salary as head of Cincinnati's Longview State Hospital to accept the $18,000 a year post as mental health director. He is asking the Ohio Supreme Court to restore his pay. State Rep. Robert A. Taft of Cincinnati, son of the late U.S. Senator, is his counsel.

Some statehouse attorneys like Haines' prospects for winning his suit.

Rhodes, who is expected to seek reelection as auditor two years hence, says he has nothing against Haines as an administrator. "I have no quarrel with the administrative director of our mental health program," he says.

"What is needed," he adds, "is concerted action, constant study and an awareness of the magnitude of the care, treatment and eventual rehabilitation of the mentally ill by every Ohio citizen."

"Instead of criticism, candidates would be better advised to offer and support a constructive program."

Promotion Drives Underway To Boom Sale of New Cars

DETROIT (AP)—New car sales reportedly are improving but prospects for even a five-million unit year in 1958 are anything but bright.

In most instances sales are running far behind those of comparable 1957.

Most recent authoritative figures show 715,512 cars were sold during January-February this year. That was more than 160,000 behind the total in last year's like period.

Figures for March have not been tabulated but the total will be far below March of 1957. The 572,917 deliveries recorded during that month last year provided a first-quarter total of 1,449,000 sales.

Apparently unseasonable weather figured in the January-March sales picture. Deliveries moved up slightly during the latter part of February, but turned down again early in March. The downturn was attributed chiefly to blizzard conditions over much of the East, the industry's major market.

The industry is pushing hard to stimulate demand. Management teams are visiting dealers throughout the country; extraordinary promotional efforts are being made; executives are making optimistic long-range forecasts, attempting to stimulate confidence.

The promotional drives reportedly have met with considerable success. Some less optimistic analysts say the drives merely borrow from the market of months ahead.

That reasoning, of course, could be applied to most sales drives. Industry economists say the drives will aid in restoring confidence. There are others, too, who say agreement on new wage contracts in the industry — without a serious work stoppage — also would help to ease uncertainty.

Inventory figures for April 1 probably will show dealer stocks still near the 900,000 unit mark. That's more than the industry normally needs for two months' retail operations. Production will not regain anywhere near normal levels until inventories have been reduced further.

Employees Due To Get Man's Chicago Firm

CHICAGO (AP)—Nearing the end of his road, as he puts it, a philosophical businessman plans to turn over a two-million dollar firm to his employees. He is deliberately bypassing his son.

"I've seen too many businesses go to pot," Bernard Spero, 64, declared today, "because the man who helped build the business dies, turning it over to heirs who lose interest in it."

Spero, a vigorous, graying figure, is founder and president of the House of Vision, Inc., an optical business whose worth he estimates at two million dollars.

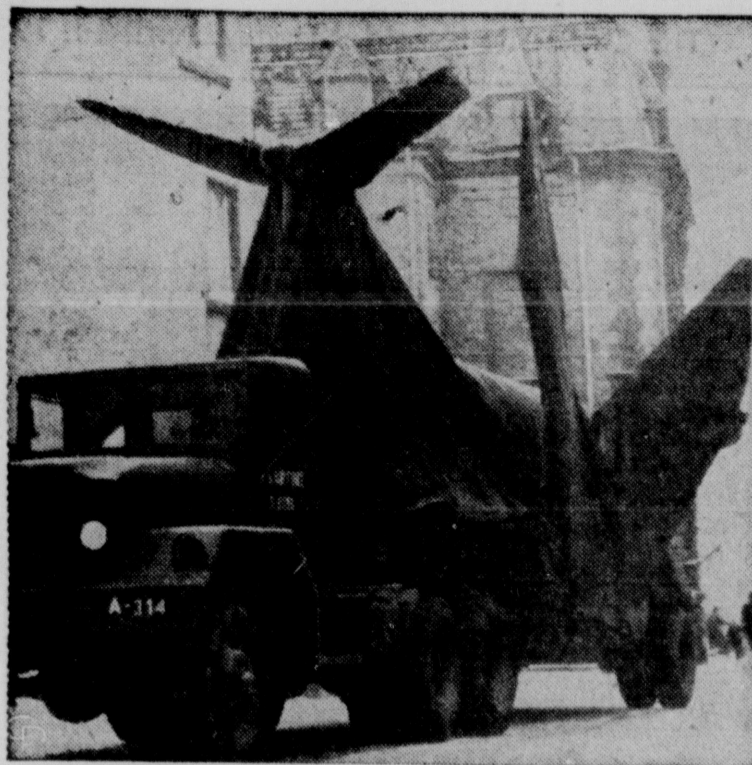

"Employees should be given a chance to participate," he told a newsman, "when a founder gets to the point where it looks like the end of the road."

This is how it works out:

Spero's son, Carl, 28, gets 25 per cent of his father's stock, which constitutes 12 per cent of the company's total issue. The rest will be offered over a 10-year period to the employees, four of whom will have an option of specified amounts of stock, each of which is more considerable than Carl's.

Spero's philosophy doesn't stop there. One of the conditions of the stock turnover is that employees who come into stock must in turn pass on only 25 per cent of their holdings to heirs when their time comes, thus funneling back 75 per cent once again to the general employees' option.

The plan is an outgrowth of a retirement trust fund instituted 20 years ago by Spero with a gift

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I work as secretary to a man of moderate success and comfortable income. My job has some importance in its field, and carries responsibilities. So much for background.

I find myself quietly annoyed when my boss, in speaking of his wife to me, invariably refers to her as Mrs. Brown. I have met her on numerous occasions, have been entertained in their home several times, and she always uses her first name when speaking to me on the telephone.

I can't help feeling that this puts me in the servant class, that he is talking down to me. I don't speak this way to the charwoman who cleans my apartment. What do you think? Is it a foolish notion on my part?

A.B.

DEAR A.B.: The boss is being a bit stuffy, perhaps; but he is still more right than wrong, in my opinion, in customarily designating his wife as Mrs. Brown, when he mentions her to the office help.

Undeniably you are being stuffy, too, and showing a twinge of inferiority complex, in feeling snubbed by his habitually formal reference to Mrs. Brown, — even granting that it is a Victorianism on his part that indicates you haven't attained to the status of family friend (in his book).

In fairness to Mr. Brown, I think you must concede that you aren't in fact a member of the Browns' inner circle, but rather a business acquaintance of his; the girl who does his office work. Therefore, I feel you ought to let him be the judge of just how close he feels to you; and that you shouldn't be hurt simply because his manner implies that his wife is, to him, a person to be wrapt in reserve, in a world apart from his office routine.

M.H.

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am a girl, 24, unmarried, with a brother in his third year at college, and a sister who wants to start college next year. I have my own apartment, so my expenses are high; but my father would like me to help my brother go to summer school this summer, and thus graduate a year earlier, as he can't afford to keep two children in college at once.

I have a willing heart, and gladly would help if I could — but I somehow can't find an extra job, for my evenings and Saturdays. I have an office job, five days a week, that pays me just about enough to take care of myself. Your advice will be much appreciated.

E.M.

DEAR E.M.: If you can find an extra job that makes it possible to help your brother through summer school, that's great. But if you can't, then be thankful that you are helping your folks in another way — by taking care of yourself financially. That's a substantial contribution to the situation.

When times are hard, it is sensible to learn to take stresses in stride, not torturing yourself about things you can't change. Have you heard Marian Anderson's reverent recording of the spiritual: "He Holds the Whole World in His Hands"? It is a call to faith. If you were to put the whole world in God's hands, figuratively, and pray for His guidance in meeting your family's needs, doors to opportunity might open wide.

Film Firm Chief Raps Sale of Movies to TV

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Selling full-length motion pictures to television was a tragic mistake, says Spyros P. Skouras.

Skouras, president of 20th Century-Fox, said Sunday night that the motion picture industry suffered irrevocably after releasing films to TV. He pleaded that pictures made after 1948 not be sold to the rival medium.

"It was a tragic mistake to sell films to television," he said, "and we must not make the same mistake again."

(In co-operation with J. Edgar Hoover, FBI Director, this newspaper is running a series of descriptive articles on criminals wanted by the FBI.)

PAUL DOUGLAS DE LAHUNTA is being sought by the FBI for violation of the Federal Reserve Act.

An indictment was returned by a Federal Grand Jury at New Haven, Conn., on Jan. 9, 1957, charging De Lahunta with violation of the Federal Reserve Act.

With aliases including Paul Douglas De Lahunta, Paul D. de Lahunta and Paul Douglas DeLahunta, the fugitive has been employed as an advertising executive and a salesman.

Volunteer Prison League Chief To Retire at Age 70

By TOM HENSHAW
AP Writer

Fifty-two years ago, 18-year-old Charles Brandon Booth took a temporary job as general secretary of the Volunteers of America's Prison League.

"I planned to stay only until they found someone else," he says. But that job lasted 10 years and next month Booth, now 70, is due to retire as commander of the whole VOA organization.

Gen. Booth was born into his work, even though he wasn't sure at first.

His grandparents, William and Catherine Booth, founded the Salvation Army in the London slums during the last century.

His father and mother, Ballington and Maud Booth, broke with the Army over organizational policies and founded the Volunteers of America in 1896.

Ballington Booth commanded the Volunteers from the organization's founding until his death in 1940 at 83. Then Maud Booth became commander. The job passed to her son at her death in 1948.

The current Gen. Booth will be the last of the family to hold the post. None of his children — two sons and a daughter — has gone into VOA work. Is he disappointed?

"No. One must have divine guidance to enter this work. The

All-Glass Church Due To Cost $1 Million

NEW YORK (AP) — An all-glass church will be built on the East Side for Roman Catholics of the Byzantine-Slavonic Rite.

The Rev. Paul Dano, pastor of St. Mary's Church, said the new structure would be the first all-glass church in the country. The design emulates temples of early Christianity in Greece.

The new home for St. Mary's congregation will seat 500 persons and will cost $1 million.

young should never be urged into a particular job or work. They should find their profession on their own bent."

Sons Richard and Weldon are engineers. Daughter Audrey is Mrs. Arthur E. Ueland of New Hyde Park, N.Y., wife of an importer.

Gen. Booth is looking forward to retirement. He feels it will help the Volunteers.

"It's wonderful that my successor will have an opportunity I never had. I did not become commander until I was 61. My successor will be in his 40s or 50s. He'll have 25 years of work ahead."

The general's successor will be chosen in the last week of May, during the Grand Field Council meeting in San Francisco. The probable choice lies among the VOA's 14 colonels.

Baseball Season Opens for Real On Tuesday

Cincinnati, Cleveland
Both at Home for
First Game of Year

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
With today's traditional Washington opener out of the way,
major league baseball opens the 1958 season for real Tuesday.

The San Francisco Giants and the Los Angeles Dodgers, late of
New York and Brooklyn, renew their long rivalry on rookie grounds in San Francisco as heroes of the National League's new West Coast outposts.

For the first time since 1951,
neither the Giants nor the Dodgers will hoist a new National League pennant.

That honor belongs to Milwaukee, where the Braves will run up
the NL bunting along with the world championship banner before taking on the Pittsburgh Pirates
in County Stadium.

The full schedule, with expected
attendance and 1957 pitching records, looks like this:

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Pittsburgh at Milwaukee 43,000
— Bob Friend (14-18) vs.
Warren Spahn (21-11).
Philadelphia at Cincinnati 30,000
— Robin Roberts (10-22) vs.
Brooks Lawrence (16-13).
Los Angeles at San Francisco
(22,000) Don Drysdale (17-9)
vs. Ruben Gomez (15-13).
Chicago at St. Louis (Night)
(19,000) — Jim Brosnan (5-5)
vs. Wilmer Mizell (8-10).

AMERICAN LEAGUE

New York at Boston (25,000) —
Don Larsen (10-4) vs. Willard
Nixon (12-13).
Washington at Baltimore (27,000) — Chuck Stobbs (8-20) vs.
Connie Johnson (14-11).
Detroit at Chicago (25,000) —
Jim Bunning (20-8) vs. Billy
Pierce (20-12).
Kansas City at Cleveland (35,000) —
Ned Garver (6-13) vs.
Herb Score (2-1).

National League President Warren
Giles will attend the Dodgers-Giants game.

In Cleveland, Score starts the trip back from that terrible eye injury of last season—a dreadful accident that almost ended what may be the most promising career in baseball.

Score, the 24-year-old, fire-balling southpaw; new manager Bobby Bragan, the guy who joked his way out of the National League;
and new general manager Frank Lane, the man who made contenders of the Chicago White Sox
and St. Louis Cardinals, spearhead the Injuns' comeback bid in the AL. They finished sixth last year.

Spahn, the NL's only 20-game winner last season, will be going for his 225th victory, tops among active NL pitchers.

The New York Yankees are after their ninth American League
pennant in the last 10 years.

Ike Helps Pirates Sign 'Pretty Darn Good Pitcher'

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — President
Eisenhower played the role of baseball scout in the Pittsburgh Pirates' signing of "a pretty darn good pitcher"—the young son of a White House doorman.

The Pirates announced Saturday night the acquisition of Preston Bruce Jr., 21, a Negro who father has worked at the White House for four years.

At the same time Eisenhower's vacation headquarters here disclosed that the President—a good center fielder in his youth—called the Pirates' attention to young
Bruce several months ago.

It happened at a White House
stag dinner given by Eisenhower
last July 23. One of the guests was Branch Rickey, the Pirates' board chairman.

During the affair the President called in the elder Bruce and introduced him to Rickey.

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, said Saturday in response to inquiries, that Eisenhower had told Rickey of young

Bruce's interest in baseball and referred to him as "a pretty darn
good pitcher."

"That's all the President had to do with it," Hagerty added.

The press secretary did not know whether that was the first tip on Bruce the Pirates had.

Eisenhower met the lanky
young pitcher last spring when Bruce and other members of the Lyndon Teachers College baseball team visited the White House.

The school is at Lyndon Center,
Tx.

The President already had heard a good deal about young Bruce and his interest in baseball
from Preston's father. Eisenhower asked the youth a good many questions about his team's record
the day of the White House visit.

The youth now is a senior at Lyndon and is majoring in science. He attended Dunbar High School in Washington and pitched for that team.

A Pirate spokesman said Bruce has been assigned to play with the Lincoln (Neb.) club in the Class A Western League. It is a
Pirate farm team.

Bruce is scheduled to report to Lincoln after he graduates from college in May. The 6-4 righthander has won college letters in baseball, basketball and soccer.

The signing took place after Bruce worked out at the Pirate
minor league training camp in Jacksonville Beach, Fla., for two weeks during his Easter recess
from school.

Eisenhower's interest in baseball goes back to his own playing days. He was center fielder as a plebe at West Point more than 40 years ago but had to give up the game about that time because of a knee injury.

Rutgers has played basketball against 83 different colleges since it began the sport in 1906.

Jockey Steve Brooks was born
in a covered wagon on Aug. 12, 1921 at McCook, Neb. His father was an itinerant horse trader.

Bosox Lead Exhibition Loop

Frisco Giants Top
Notional Leaguers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Step up and meet the new champs—the champs the Grapefruit-Cactus leagues, that is.

The Boston Red Sox finished first among the American League teams with a 16-6 record, good for a .727 average. That's a fantastic gait, far better than the record compiled by most pennant winners.

In the National League, the San Francisco Giants wound up at the top of the heap with 21-11 mark, which came to a .656 average.

The biggest disappointment of the exhibition season is not hard to spot. The Detroit Tigers' miserable 7-19 (.269) record, which placed the Bengals far down in last place, was the shocker of the spring.

The standings were compiled strictly against major league opposition.

In fact, the Richmond Virginians of the International League accomplished what most major league clubs couldn't when they licked the Red Sox 5-1 at Richmond Sunday in the exhibition finale.

The world champion Milwaukee
Braves polished off the hapless Tigers 7-3 at Milwaukee. The New York Yankees clubbed the Philadelphia Phillies 10-5 in Philadelphia with catcher Yogi Berra showing no ill effects from a 13-day layoff caused by a split hand. He hit a two-run homer to help the cause.

In Kansas City, the A's twice defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 7-1 and 3-2. The second game went 14 innings.

In other games, the Washington
Senators turned back the Chicago
White Sox 9-5, Cincinnati defeated
Baltimore 3-2, Cleveland whipped San Francisco 8-5, Los Angeles halted the Chicago Cubs 4-1 and Pittsburgh bombarded the Columbia Jets of the International League 15-2.

Track Team, Baseballers Set for Action

Circleville High School's track and baseball squads swing back into action today and tomorrow following a layoff due to bad weather most of last week.

The track team, minus Coach Tom Bennett who underwent an emergency appendectomy Friday in Berger Hospital, is scheduled for a triangular meet today at Chillicothe. Assistant Coach John Current will be at the helm in Bennett's absence.

Greenfield McClain is the third team in the meeting. Events are slated to start at 4 p.m.

Coach Dick Boyd's baseball nine is set for a visit by Wilmington tomorrow afternoon. The Tigers will be seeking their second straight win in the South Central Ohio league and fourth of the season.

The baseballers' other game for the week is set Friday when they travel to Washington C. H. for a loop test.

Stokes Showing Some Improvement

CINCINNATI (AP) — Maurice Stokes, husky pro basketball star, shows some improvement in his recovery from a severe attack of sleeping sickness.

That's the report at St. Elizabeth Hospital in nearby Covington, Ky., where Stokes' condition Sunday was listed as fair.

But hospital aides said the ace Cincinnati Royals' rebounder is still not yet conscious.

Stokes has been in the hospital since March 15 when he became critically ill on a flight here with teammates from Detroit.

THE MAN: Stan Musial,

COMEBACK: Base-

Ike Opens '58 Baseball Campaign

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, an old ballplayer himself, went out to Griffith Stadium today to make the pitch that launches another baseball season.

Following a custom established in the heyday of Mathewson and Cobb, he will toss out the first ball as the Washington Senators meet the Boston Red Sox.

Close to 28,000 fans are expected for the 1958 debut of major league baseball. The game is the only one scheduled today. Other clubs start Tuesday.

Eisenhower, who played semi-pro ball one summer as a youth, will be making his sixth pitch as a President.

After he performs, Washington's Pedro Ramos and Boston's Frank Sullivan will get down to the real business of pitching. Like Eisenhower, both are right-handers.

Managers Cookie Lavagetto of Washington and Mike Higgins of Boston chose their hurlers for obvious reasons. Ramos, with an 11-5 career against Boston, has been more effective opposing the Red Sox than against any other club.

Sullivan, a 6-foot-7 giant, is 10-4 against Washington in five seasons.
Ramos, 22-year-old Cuban, had a 12-16 record throughout last year, when the Senators wound up in last place. Sullivan was 14-11 for third-place Boston.

The Boston Red Sox had an 18-6 record for double header action in 1957. They swept eight double headers, split two twin bills and twice lost double headers.

Hawks Win Pro Cage Title From Celtics

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Coach Alex Han-num of the St. Louis Hawks and
the Hawks' owner Ben Kerner didn't always see eye-to-eye during this season. But with the National Basketball Assn. title tucked safely away Hannum can have his job back next year if he wants it.
The Hawks clinched the title

Red Sox attack this year, Hay-former University of Florida athletic star, hit .293 for Frisco

with a 110-109 defeat of the Boston
Celtics Saturday night.

The two men created considerable discussion in basketball circles this year when they had a violent disagreement about how the team should be handled.

But today Kerner said the Hawks coaching job was "Han-num's for the asking." Kerner said a contract would be discussed in the next 30 days.

Hawk Jack McMahon summed

up the team's attitude Saturday
with "God bless Bob Pettit."

The lanky Pettit pitched in 50 points and tied an onba tournament record.

Even with Pettit's exceptional
performance, Coach Hannum called winning the crown a team effort.

"The more I think about it, the more that game typified the solid team spirit, the cooperation that was behind its success for two years," Hannum said.

Slater Martin guarded Celtic star Bob Cousy so well that Cousy
was held to 15 points.

Bragan Selects Score in Opener

CLEVELAND (AP)—Cleveland Indians' Field Manager Bobby Bragan
says he is confident Herb Score will be in shape to pitch the Tribe's season opener against Kansas City Tuesday.

Score, who missed an exhibition
game against the Giants Saturday because of intestinal flu, was to work out today at the stadium.

Bragan said Sunday, after bringing the Indians home from their barnstorming tour, he had talked to Score and the ace leftlander is
good enough for me."

Baseball Season Opens for Real On Tuesday

Cincinnati, Cleveland
Both at Home for
First Game of Year

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
With today's traditional Washington opener out of the way,
major league baseball opens the 1958 season for real Tuesday.

The San Francisco Giants and
the Los Angeles Dodgers, late of
New York and Brooklyn, renew
their long rivalry on rookie
grounds in San Francisco as heroes of the National League's
new West Coast outposts.

For the first time since 1951,
neither the Giants nor the Dodgers
will hoist a new National League
pennant.

That honor belongs to Milwaukee, where the Braves will run up
the NL bunting along with the world championship banner before taking on the Pittsburgh Pirates
in County Stadium.

The full schedule, with expected
attendance and 1957 pitching records, looks like this:

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Pittsburgh at Milwaukee 43,000
— Bob Friend (14-18) vs.
Warren Spahn (21-11).
Philadelphia at Cincinnati 30,000
— Robin Roberts (10-22) vs.
Brooks Lawrence (16-13).
Los Angeles at San Francisco
(22,000) Don Drysdale (17-9)
vs. Ruben Gomez (15-13).
Chicago at St. Louis (Night)
(19,000) — Jim Brosnan (5-5)
vs. Wilmer Mizell (8-10).

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Detroit at Chicago (25,000) —
Jim Bunning (20-8) vs. Billy
Pierce (20-12).
Kansas City at Cleveland (35,000)—
Ned Garver (6-13) vs.
Herb Score (2-1).

National League President Warren
Giles will attend the Dodgers-Giants game.

In Cleveland, Score starts the trip back from that terrible eye
injury of last season—a dreadful accident that ended what may be the most promising career
in baseball.

Score, the 24-year-old, fire-balling southpaw; new manager Bobby Bragan, the guy who joked his way out of the National League;
and new general manager Frank
Lane, the man who made con-
tenders of the Chicago White Sox
and St. Louis Cardinals, spearhead the Injuns' comeback bid in
year.

Spahn, the NL's only 20-game
winner last season, will be going
for his 25th victory, tops among active NL pitchers.

The New York Yankees are after their ninth American League

Ike Helps Pirates Sign 'Pretty Darn Good Pitcher'

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—President
Eisenhower played the role of baseball scout in the Pittsburgh Pirates' signing of "a pretty darn good pitcher"—the young son of a White House doorkeeper.

The Pirates announced Saturday night the acquisition of Preston Bruce Jr., 21, a Negro whose father has worked at the White House for four years.

At the same time Eisenhower's vacation headquarters here disclosed that the President—a good center fielder in his youth—called
the Pirates' attention to young
Bruce several months ago.

It happened at a White House
stag dinner given by Eisenhower
last July 23. One of the guests was Branch Rickey, the Pirates' board
chairman.

During the affair the President
called in the elder Bruce and introduced him to Rickey.

James C. Hagerty, White House
press secretary, said Saturday in response to inquiries, that Eisenhower had told Rickey of young

Bruce's interest in baseball and
referred to him as "a pretty darn
good pitcher."

"That's all the President had to do with it," Hagerty added.

The press secretary did not know whether that was the first
tip on Bruce the Pirates had.

Eisenhower met the lanky
young pitcher last spring when Bruce and other members of the Lyndon Teachers College baseball team visited the White House.
The school is at Lyndon Center,
Va.

The President already had heard a good deal about young Bruce and his interest in baseball
from Preston's father. Eisenhower asked the youth a good many questions about his team's record
the day of the White House visit.

The youth now is a senior at Lyndon and is majoring in science. He attended Dunbar High School in Washington and pitched
for that team.

A Pirate spokesman said Bruce
has been assigned to play with
the Lincoln (Neb.) club in the Class A Western League. It is a
Pirate farm team.

Bruce is scheduled to report to Lincoln after he graduates from college in May. The 6-4 righthander has won college letters in baseball, basketball and soccer.

The signing took place after Bruce worked out at the Pirate
minor league training camp in Jacksonville Beach, Fla., for two
from school.

Eisenhower's interest in baseball goes back to his own playing days. He was center fielder as a plebe at West Point more than 40
years ago but had to give up the game about that time because of a knee injury.

Rutgers has played basketball
against 83 different colleges since
it began the sport in 1906.

Jockey Steve Brooks was born
in a covered wagon on Aug. 12, 1921 at McCook, Neb. His father
was an itinerant horse trader.

Hawks Win Pro Cage Title From Celtics

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Coach Alex Han-
num of the St. Louis Hawks and
the Hawks' owner Ben Kerner
didn't always see eye-to-eye during this season. But with the National Basketball Assn. title tucked safely away Hannum can have his job back next year if he wants it.
The Hawks clinched the title

Celtics Saturday night.

The two men created considerable discussion in basketball circles this year when they had a violent disagreement about how
the team should be handled.

But today Kerner said the Hawks coaching job was "Han-
num's for the asking." Kerner
said a contract would be discussed
in the next 30 days.

Hawk Jack McMahon summed

up the team's attitude Saturday

with "God bless Bob Pettit."

The lanky Pettit pitched in 50
points and tied an onba tournament record.

Even with Pettit's exceptional
performance, Coach Hannum
called winning the crown a team effort.

"The more I think about it, the more that game typified the solid
team spirit, the cooperation that was behind its success for two years," Hannum said.

Slater Martin guarded Celts
star Bob Cousy so well that Cousy
was held to 15 points.

Bragan Selects Score in Opener

CLEVELAND (AP)—Cleveland Indians' Field Manager Bobby Bragan
says he is confident Herb Score will be in shape to pitch the Tribe's season opener against Kansas City Tuesday.

Score, who missed an exhibition
game against the Giants Saturday
because of intestinal flu, was to work out today at the stadium.

Bragan said Sunday, after bringing the Indians home from their barnstorming tour, he had talked to Score and the ace left-hander is
good enough for me."

LATE ARRIVAL FOR DERBY?—That sensational come-from-behind colt, Silky Sullivan, the talk of all horsemen, goes before the cameras at Golden Gate, Albany, Calif., for a pre-Derby stint.

The racing world is divided as to whether the glamor boy of west coast can win the Kentucky Derby, which is expected to be his next outing. (International)

OSU's Davis Lauded for Relay Showing

QUANTICO, Va. (P)—Glenn Davis is back in the middle of the national track scene, and those who watched his phenomenal performance at the Quantico Relays say the Ohio State sensation is headed for new fame.

"I think he has the makings of a decathlon champion," said Dan Ferris, honorary secretary of the Amateur Athletic Union.

"He could be the greatest quarter-miler who ever lived if he concentrated on that alone," said Larry Snyder, Davis' coach at Ohio State.

The 23-year old Davis won five gold medals at the Marine Corps schools' relays Friday and Satur-

After that, he twice came from behind and with blazing finishes brought Ohio State victory in the mile and 480-yard shuttle hurdles relays.

"He lifts any team he runs on," Snyder said.

Snyder thinks Davis could accomplish just about anything he undertakes. But he doubts whether the 6-foot Buckeye would apply himself only to the 440, for instance, because he's sure of team points in the hurdles, jump and relays.

The Southern Assn. will not have a playoff this year. Neither will it play in the Dixie Series with the Texas League.

Goalby Pockets Greensboro Cash

GREENSBORO, N. C. (P)—Professional golf's youth movement caught up with 45-year-old Sam Snead in the final round of the $15,000 Greater Greensboro Open tournament.

Snead had set his sights on his seventh Greensboro victory and seemed in great position to achieve his goal after moving into a two-stroke lead after Sunday's third round.

But when the playoff time came shortly before dusk, unheralded Bob Goalby accepted the $2,000 winner's check.

Snead's 277 was worth $1,080, the same amount won by Don January of Eastland, Tex.; Dow Finsterwald of Athens, Ohio; Tony

Lema of Napa, Calif., and Art Wall of Pocono Manor, Pa.

Youngstown Cage Pilot OKs Loyola

NEW ORLEANS (P)—Loyola University of the South has named Henry Kuzma, whose basketball teams at Steubenville College have compiled a 95-19 record, head basketball coach.

The 30-year-old Kuzma replaces Jim Harding, who resigned at the end of last season after leading Loyola to a 16-9 record and a spot in the NCAA tournament.

Kuzma, a graduate of Duquesne, had been at Steubenville four years. His team last season won 24 and lost one.

Cincy Red Players Sure but Cautious

CINCINNATI (P)—Unlike some earlier years, Cincinnati Redleg players are making no predictions about where the team will finish this season. They're confident but cautious.

Catcher Ed Bailey said Sunday, "I don't know where we'll finish, but we have improved. Some of the power is gone, but... we've added some guys and things that give us balance."

GREENSBORO, N. C. (AP) — Professional golfer's youth movement caught up with 45-year-old Sam Snead in the final round of the $15,000 Greater Greensboro Open tournament.

Snead had set his sights on his seventh Greensboro victory and seemed in great position to achieve his goal after moving into a two-stroke lead after Sunday's third round.

But when the payoff time came shortly before dusk, unheralded Bob Goalby accepted the $2,000 winner's check.

Lema of Napa, Calif., and Art Wall of Pocono Manor, Pa.

Cincy Red Players Sure but Cautious

CINCINNATI (AP) — Unlike some earlier years, Cincinnati Redleg players are making no predictions about where the team will finish this season. They're confident but cautious.

Frankie Robinson, best Redleg hitter in 1957, said, "No predictions, but the winter deals (mainly for pitchers) have helped us."

12 OU Students Handed Fines For Campus Demonstrations

ATHENS (AP) — Municipal Judge John Newcomb today fined 12 students $25 and costs each for their part in a demonstration on the Ohio University campus here early today.

Police had to use tear gas to break up a milling jeering crowd of several hundred. Officers said they are considering filing charges against some other students.

Ohio highway patrol dispatcher Norman Van Nest said that during the course of Sunday night's demonstration male students staged panty raids on two girls' dormitories and an orange-throwing battle developed between students.

The oranges, together with milk bottles, eggs and strings of toilet paper were hurled in the direction of newspaper photographers and some 20 officers who tried to quell the mob. No one was hurt.

A university spokesman said that the panty raid didn't come off.

Van Nest said, however, that he understood several male students were able to gain entrance to the girls' dormitories after the coeds waved panties from the windows.

Pay Affected By Lump Sums For Disability

Q—I was discharged from the armed forces with a 20 per cent disability, and received a lump sum disability severance payment. Will that payment have any effect on VA disability compensation, if the VA approves my claim?

A—Yes it will. If the VA grants compensation, it will withhold your payments until the amount recovered equals the amount of severance pay you received. After that, VA will send your regular compensation check each month.

Q—I am a Korean veteran eligible for GI training. I recently returned to active duty and as a result will be unable to start training when my starting deadline arrives. Could the deadline be postponed in my case?

A—I wish it could, but under the law, veterans must begin Korean GI training before their deadline, which is three years after the date of their discharge. There are no exceptions.

Q—WILL this new law recently passed by Congress allowing GI loans to be given without a down payment mean anything to veterans in Pickaway County? In other words, can we get GI Loans now?

A—That question is impossible for me to answer. I would say that if you wish a GI Loan, let us secure a certificate of eligibility for a loan, and then you can talk to the banks in regard to it. It is not for me, nor the VA, to say whether the banks can give a GI loan without a down payment. They can, if they wish, but they are not compelled to do so.

Q—I have named the beneficiary on my GI insurance policy, but I have neglected to choose a method of payment. If I should die without designating a payment plan, how will the insurance money be paid?

A—It will be paid to your beneficiaries in 36 equal installments. However, your first beneficiary has the right to choose payments under any other installment plan available. You will note, that the lump sum payment is not permitted unless you designate it.

Q—I filed a claim for death pension about a month after my husband died. What will be the effective date of payments if it is approved?

A—Payments under the death pension law begin as of the day following the veteran's death if the claim is filed within one year after the veteran's death.

Jet Plane Fails To Complete Trip

WESTOVER, Mass. (AP)—Lack of gale winds has forced a huge jet tanker to abandon its attempt to set a nonstop record from Yokota, Japan, to Madrid, Spain.

The four-engine Stratojet tanker plane set down at Westover Sunday after streaking 7,900 miles. The plane carried enough fuel for a 10,000-mile flight, but favorable jet stream winds were needed to push it to 11,487 miles to Madrid.

Van Nest said the police had to use the tear gas. "They couldn't get them (the students) broken up," he said. "For every one they'd throw in jail they'd get two to replace them on campus. They just couldn't get rid of them."

When it was over, some 30 students were locked up in Athens city jail. Others had their names taken to be charged later, Van Nest said.

The university spokesman said 13 of those jailed were eventually released by police.

Van Nest said most of those jailed were charged or will be charged with disorderly conduct, some with resisting arrest.

The patrolmen said the demonstration apparently started because "students weren't satisfied with the meal they had" Sunday night.

The university spokesman said, however, that he could find no basis for that explanation. He said traditionally the Sunday evening meal is not the heaviest, but that its quantity was no less than on any other Sunday.

VAN NEST said the demonstration began as an orange-throwing incident between students. The oranges were served at the Sunday night meal.

The university spokesman said a campus policeman appeared on the scene and the students began throwing oranges at him.

City, county and state authorities were called in when the demonstration got out of hand.

Shrubbery and small trees on campus were damaged, according to both university and patrol sources. But the university spokesman quoted Athens Police Chief Joseph B. Grogan as saying there was minimum damage.

Pay Affected By Lump Sums For Disability

Q— I was discharged from the armed forces with a 20 per cent disability, and received a lump sum disability severance payment. Will that payment have any effect on VA disability compensation, if the VA approves my claim?

A— Yes it will. If the VA grants compensation, it will withhold your payments until the amount recovered equals the amount of severance pay you received. After that, VA will send your regular compensation check each month.

Q— I am a Korean veteran eligible for GI training. I recently returned to active duty and as a result will be unable to start training when my starting deadline arrives. Could the deadline be postponed in my case?

A— I wish it could, but under the law, veterans must begin Korean GI training before their deadline, which is three years after the date of their discharge. There are no exceptions.

Q— WILL this new law recently passed by Congress allowing GI loans to be given without a down payment mean anything to veterans in Pickaway County? In other words, can we get GI Loans now?

A— That question is impossible for me to answer. I would say that if you wish a GI Loan, let us secure a certificate of eligibility for a Loan, and then you can talk to the banks in regard to it. It is not for me, nor the VA, to say whether the banks can give a GI loan without a down payment. They can, if they wish, but they are not compelled to do so.

Q— I have named the beneficiary on my GI insurance policy, but I have neglected to choose a method of payment. If I should die without designating a payment plan, how will the insurance money be paid?

A— It will be paid to your beneficiaries in 36 equal installments. However, your first beneficiary has the right to choose payments under any other installment plan available. You will note, that the lump sum payment is not permitted unless you designate it.

Q— I filed a claim for death pension about a month after my husband died. What will be the effective date of payments if it is approved?

A— Payments under the death pension law begin as of the day following the veteran's death if the claim is filed within one year after the veteran's death.

Jet Plane Fails To Complete Trip

WESTOVER, Mass. — Lack of gale winds has forced a huge jet tanker to abandon its attempt to set a nonstop record from Yokota, Japan, to Madrid, Spain.

The four-engine Stratojet tanker plane set down at Westover Sunday after streaking 7,900 miles.

The plane carried enough fuel for a 10,000-mile flight, but favorable jet stream winds were needed to push it to 11,487 miles to Madrid.

At dawn Sunday, the jet got 600 miles out over the Atlantic. It reversed its course and landed at Westover.
